Primary Care Curated

Trusted health information, chosen by primary care doctors.

Look up your condition. Know what to ask at your next visit.

Primary Care Curated is a free website where you can learn about common health conditions in plain language. Every topic links to sources primary care doctors trust — not ads, not opinions, and nothing for sale.

On the site you'll find:

- Diabetes, high blood pressure, and dozens more topics
- What to expect, how it's treated, and warning signs
- Available in English and Spanish
